We express appreciation to those who helped us in obtaining the information needed to complete this project.

Sherman Lee Pompey

D. R. Van De Walker, Owens Valley Mortician

Terry Goodwin, Mt. Whitney Cemetery Sexton

Bill Michael, Museum Director, and staff, Eastern California Museum of Inyo County at Independence

Dorothy C. Cragen, former staff member of Eastern California Museum of Inyo County, who inventoried Lone Pine 1st Cemetery in about 1965

Our special appreciation to Joyce Trotter for the hours spent in typing, editing, and organizing the final draft and printing the final work.

We concentrated our efforts on the cemeteries of Lone Pine and Independence. It is our hope that someone will be inspired to continue our work with special attention to the Keeler and Darwin Cemeteries.

Influenza Victims Cemetery, Cartego, California

The following information was received from George Brown of Olancha who stated that the early settlers at Haiwee, Olancha, and Cartego were buried at Fort Independence and Lone Pine.

"There are several graves north of Cartego of people who died during the flu epidemic. There were head boards on their graves but no tombstones. I do not know their names."

Mr. Brown was born in Olancha about 1878, so he should know if anyone does, and he does not.

Keeler Cemetery, Keeler, California

Inventoried by the DAR in the 1950's and by Mrs. Lillian Hilderman, August 1965. According to Mrs. Hilderman: "Possibly 50, 60, or more graves at one time. There were several wooden board markers but a flash flood in August 1945 tore down fences and boards. None now in place. Possibly Dan McLeods death will be listed with county clerk."

Chinese Cemetery, Independence, California

The Old Chinese Cemetery is located south of town in a field about 50 feet off the dirt road. At one time it had a nice set of picket fences around the graves, but these have since disappeared. There are an estimated 35 graves in this cemetery, none of them known at the present time. It is thought that this was originally a white cemetery that was abandoned and later the Chinese used it.

Japanese Cemetery Manzanar, California

This is the Japanese Cemetery at the World War II relocation center on Manzanar Ranch between Independence and Lone Pine off Highway 395. There is only one Japanese body still remaining in this cemetery, the remainder having been removed. Name of the last "resident" unknown.

Jewish Cemetery Independence, California

The Jewish Cemetery is located 1/2 mile north of the town of Independence on Highway 395 in an open field on the west side of the highway. It is fenced.

Old Soldiers Cemetery Fort Independence, California

This was the old Soldiers Cemetery just across the street and 500 yards west of Fort Independence. It was originally used to inter soldiers from the Fort, and civilian burials were allowed. When the Fort was disbanded, the Governmant made the offer to allow the soldiers to remain there provided that the townspeople kept up the graveyard. Failing to do this, in 1898 the Army removed the soldiers to the Presidio of San Francisco. The present cemetery district has fenced the old cemetery and cleaned it up and these civilian graves remain.
